CENTER FOR
FAMILY HISTORY
AND GENEALOGY

Volume 1 Fall 2002

The Center for Family History and Genealogy was established at Brigham Young University in order to utilize BYU resources to simplify the finding of ancestors and the discovery of the world in which they lived; and to support the training of students for life-long temple and family history service.

Partners of the Center include:

Religious Education
Department of History
School of Family Life, Family, Home and Social Sciences
Computer Science Department
BYU Center for Molecular Genealogy
State Archives of Niedersachsen, Germany
State Archives of Bavaria, Germany

Publications of the Center include:

The BYU Family Historian (online)
Teaching Family History
Guides to Genealogical Resources
Pre-1846 Baptisms for the Dead Index

Journal Submissions

The BYU Family Historian is an online academic journal. Authors should note that articles are peer reviewed. Please adhere to the following guidelines for article submission:

1. Follow the guidelines for manuscript preparation as detailed in The Chicago Manual of Style, 14th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1993), and Style Guide for Publications of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 3rd ed. (Salt Lake City: The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1998).
2. Submit one hard copy of the article along with one electronic copy of the article in Word or Word Perfect format either on an IBM formatted floppy disk or through e-mail to j_livingston@sisna.com (please limit attachment size to no larger than 1 MB). Include any image files or unique fonts used in the article.
3. Include a description of any images used along with source information and a short 3 - 5 line biography about the author.
