ASMA

Hope Maternal Clinic, Sunday, March 3, 2019

Cox's Bazaar, Bangladesh

Interviewer: Melissa Dalton-Bradford

Interpreter:

Asma

Consent given to use everything

No age, but teenager. Pregnant, but not by rape.

Why did you flee Myanmar?

“The army abducted and killed my uncle

The village was burnt and I witnessed the mass murder of my people

My entire family came to Cox's Bazaar about one year ago

I am married and I am six months pregnant

My husband is a good man, but he is jobless here and he cannot serve our family

I did not see women raped but I have spoken with many who have been raped

I have talked with young girls who were hurt and also raped

Sometimes parents trying to save their children were beaten, tortured or killed.”

Families were separated. Parents couldn't find their children and children couldn't find their mothers.

Pull-out quote:

“My husband is a good man, but he is jobless here and he cannot serve our family”

--Or--

“Sometimes parents trying to save their children were beaten, tortured or killed”
