APPENDIX B
BY-LAWS
Association of Mormon
Counselors and Psychotherapists

Adopted September 30, 1976
Amended Fall 1977

Article I - NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. The name of this Association shall be the Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists.

Section 2. Purpose. The purpose of this Association shall be:

- a) To promote fellowship, foster communication, enhance personal and professional development, and promote a forum for counselors and psychotherapists whose common bond is membership in and adherence to the principles and standards of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, both in their personal lives and professional practice.
- b) To encourage members and assist them in their efforts to provide leadership in stemming the tide of materialism, amorality and immorality that threatens to engulf their various other professional organizations and the society at large.

Article II - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. General. Any person whose primary professional responsibilities and/or interest are in the area of counseling and psychotherapy shall be eligible for membership in the Association.

Section 2. Types of Membership. The Association shall include three types of membership: professional, student, and associate.

Section 3. Requirements for Membership.

- a) Professional. The member must have reached a professional level of training in one of the branches of counseling or psychotherapy, be a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and be willing to declare his/her commitment to the principles and standards of the Church, both in his/her personal life and professional practice.
- b) Student. The member must be engaged in a program of professional training in counseling or psychotherapy and be otherwise eligible as in (a) above.
- c) Associate. An associate member need not be a member of the Church or of the counseling-psychotherapy profession, but must subscribe to the purpose of the Association. He/she may not vote or hold office.

Section 4. Sustaining Member Designation. Any person who qualifies for one of the above types of membership who makes a substantial financial contribution to the Association will be eligible for the designation "Sustaining Member".

Section 5. Loss of Membership. A person's membership may be terminated by action of the Governing Board for failure to pay dues or for behavior not in keeping with the state purpose of and requirements for membership in the Association. Any member against whom such action is taken shall have the opportunity of a full hearing before the Governing Board.

Article III OFFICERS & GOVERNING BOARD

Section 1. Officers. The officers of this Association shall be President, President-Elect, Past-President, and Secretary-Treasurer. These elected officials shall constitute the Executive Committee.
