TO OUR READERS:

The Brigham Young University Prelaw Review is a student-written, student-edited journal published once a year by the Brigham Young University Prelaw Advisement Center. Since 1992, the journal has sought to provide BYU undergraduate students with a venue to publish budding legal scholarship. Circulation includes all American Bar Association accredited law schools, BYU prelaw students, and other interested readers. Submission is open to all BYU students. For detailed submission information please contact the Prelaw Advisement Center.

Contents represent the opinions of the authors and not necessarily those of the editors, advisors, Brigham Young University, or its sponsoring institution, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
