Acknowledgements

A huge thank you to Drew Rupard: a loyal helper, friend, fashionista, and poet; to Kessia Robinson for her priceless anecdotes and innovative ideas; to Haley Brown for her gentle leadership skills; to Lindsey Owens for her design prowess; to Alison Maeser Brimley for her calm disposition and refined insight; to Shamae Budd for sacrificing time with her redheaded poodle and teaching us how to be our truest selves; to Noah Hickman for his gavel and the poetic lens through which he sees the world; to Sydney Arvanitas for her aesthetic sensibilities; to Milan Cook for her fierce loyalty, creativity, and her inspiring ambition.

I am especially grateful for the staff: their dance moves, their dedication to this fine magazine and to arts and literature. And of course John Bennion my writing and teaching mentor, UK hiking guide, and friend. I once saw him punch a wild horse in the face to stop it from trampling a student—and I wouldn't want any other kind of advisor for this journal.
