

7-1-1977

Editorial Note

Eugene W. Wu

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/jeal>

BYU ScholarsArchive Citation

Wu, Eugene W. (1977) "Editorial Note," Journal of East Asian Libraries: Vol. 1977 : No. 53 , Article 2.
Available at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/jeal/vol1977/iss53/2>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the All Journals at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of East Asian Libraries by an authorized editor of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact scholarsarchive@byu.edu, ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.

EDITORIAL NOTE

With this issue the name of this publication is changed from CEAL Newsletter to CEAL Bulletin by vote of the CEAL membership at its last annual meeting in New York in March, 1977. It is our hope that each future issue of the Bulletin will continue to include at least one substantive article on East Asian librarianship, be it a bibliographical essay, a statistical survey, or a library related treatise. We welcome contributions from our readers: In this connection we recommend for your information the statistical profile in this issue of university and college libraries in Taiwan by Mr. Anthony W. Ferguson of Brigham Young University (pp.34-52). Mr. Ferguson collected his data for this article while spending a year in Taiwan, 1975-76.

We also salute in this issue Mr. James S. K. Tung, Assistant University Librarian and Curator Emeritus, Gest Oriental Library and East Asian Collection of Princeton University Library and a past Chairperson of CEAL. Mr. Tung is a scholar-librarian of the first order, whose contribution to East Asian librarianship has benefited not only Princeton University, where he served with great distinction for twenty-five years, but also East Asian libraries nation-wide. We are grateful to Ms. Maureen H. Donovan for her tribute to Mr. Tung, the sentiment of which we proudly share (pp. 57-59).

May we take this opportunity to thank all of you for your continuing support of this publication through your subscriptions. It has been suggested that we open a new section in the Bulletin to publish "Letters to the Editor." We would be happy to do so, and hope such a section would stimulate discussion on items of common concern. Please address your letters to Dr. Richard C. Howard, Chairperson, CEAL Subcommittee on Publications.

(Eugene W. Wu)