EDITORIAL NOTE

With this issue, the annual publication schedule (July, November, March) of the CEAL Bulletin is advanced one month, so that future issues will appear in June, October, and February. This change is being made because of the difficulty we have experienced in getting the March issue of the Bulletin mailed and delivered to CEAL subscribers prior to the annual meeting held late in March.

It is with considerable regret that we announce the resignations of two members of the CEAL Subcommittee on Publications: Miwa Kai, because of the pressure of other duties, and Thomas Kuo, because he will be in the Far East as a Fulbright-Hays Scholar. We wish to thank them both for their loyal service to CEAL and their many contributions to the Bulletin. We also wish to welcome two new members to the Subcommittee and to the staff of the Bulletin: Eugene Carvalho, of the University of Kansas, who will be responsible for materials relating to Japan; and William S. Wong, of the University of Illinois, who will assume responsibility for contributions relating to China.

To many of us 1978 will be remembered as the year of retirement for three of our distinguished colleagues: Naomi Fukuda, of the University of Michigan, T. H. Tsien, of the University of Chicago, and Ernst Wolff, of the University of Illinois. We draw our readers' attention to the notices concerning each of these librarians which appear in the "Librarians" section of this issue. On behalf of the East Asian library community we wish to express our appreciation for the many valued contributions each has made to the profession, and we look forward to their continued "post-retirement" achievements in the field of East Asian studies and librarianship.

CEAL members are reminded that August 1, 1978, is the deadline for submitting proposals for Materials Collection and Distribution Panels to the 1979 AAS Program Committee. Reference is made to the March 1978 issue of the AAS Newsletter, which contains guidelines and an application form for panel proposals. Proposals should be sent to Mr. Giok Po Oey, Librarian, John M. Echols Collection on Southeast Asia, Cornell University Libraries, Ithaca, New York 14853.

The latest issue of the Directory of East Asian Collections in North American Libraries did not include the telephone numbers of the Hoover Institution East Asian Collection. These numbers are: (415) 497-4271 and 497-4272. We regret any inconvenience caused by this omission.
