We are very grateful to the Department of Linguistics at Brigham Young University for their generous financial support in publishing this report of the Tenth Annual Symposium of the Deseret Language and Linguistics Society.

Authors and titles of all of the contributed papers delivered at the symposium are listed by section. The table of contents lists selected contributed papers in alphabetical order by author after the invited paper.

The featured speakers were Evelyn Hatch (U.C.L.A.) and Gary Prideaux (University of Alberta). Prideaux's paper is found in this volume and Hatch's paper "An Experimental Model and its Application to Teaching" can be found (by prior agreement) in Current Approaches to Second Language Acquisition: Proceedings of the 13th Annual Linguistics Symposium at the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee (forthcoming).

The authors of the articles printed herein are solely responsible for their content and accuracy.

We thank all who participated in the Tenth DLLS Symposium, especially Dr. Hatch and Dr. Prideaux, for making it a stimulating academic experience.
