Sigma: Journal of Political and International Studies is a multidisciplinary journal that serves as a publishing forum for undergraduate student papers in the fields of political science and international studies. Sigma is sponsored by BYU chapters of Pi Sigma Alpha (a political science honor society) and Sigma Iota Rho (an international studies honor society). For more information on these student organizations, please see their respective web pages at <http://fhss.byu.edu/polisci/psa.htm> and <http://kennedy.byu.edu/sigma/index.html>.

Sigma is published annually during winter semester. Papers for the Winter 2005 issue may be submitted to 745 SWKT, Provo, Utah 84602. We accept papers written on a broad range of topics related to political science and international studies. Authors should submit three identical copies. An abstract should be included. The author's name must not appear on the pages of the paper. An accompanying information sheet will be filled out at the time of submission. Sigma also welcomes students interested in participating in our editing and publishing team. Academic credit is available for participation. For more information, email the editor at sigma@byu.edu.
