Seeing Her Everywhere

I'm starting to see the Mother everywhere.
In murals.
On walls.
In places I'm told She doesn't belong.

It turns out
when you're a Goddess
you don't have to ask
mere mortals
for permission to exist.

And it turns out
when you're seeking a Goddess
you don't have to ask
mere mortals
for permission to seek.

For as mortals once denied that the Earth followed the Sun,
So do so many deny that She is there, at the center, all-powerful, all-real
and that as Her children
We follow Her.
