Membership in the Swiss American Historical Society is open to all. Each year, members will receive three copies of the Swiss American Historical Society Review, a personal copy of each book published by the Society in that year, and an invitation to attend the national meeting of the Society, held consecutively in Philadelphia, New York City, and Washington, D.C. At these annual meetings, members will have the opportunity to meet fellow Swiss Americans and scholars in the fields of Swiss and Swiss American studies and international relations. They may also establish new friendships and professional relationships.
