REMEMBER THAT NIGHT

by Mark Strand

“Remember that night in the canoe on the Mississippi?” she asked, “Remember how the stars shone?”

“Were you with me?” he said. “I thought I was with somebody else.”

“That was me,” she said, “we paddled and paddled, we went around and around.”

“I could swear I was with somebody else,” he said.

“No, darling, it was me,” she said, “It was me. It was me.”
