ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to thank the Brigham Young University College of Humanities and its language departments for their generous support of the Twelfth Annual Symposium of the Deseret Language and Linguistic Society. We are also grateful to those who took part in any way in organizing, chairing panels, presenting papers or attending the symposium.

We are particularly grateful to our keynote speakers, Professor Insup Taylor (University of Toronto, Canada) and Professor Joel Scherzer (University of Texas at Austin) for their presentations. Texts of both of these are included in this volume. We are also thankful for their willingness to present informal seminars (Dr. Taylor's is included in this volume).

The names of authors and papers presented in the symposium are listed below, by the section in which they occurred. The Table of Contents contains the names of authors and papers which were submitted for publication in the proceedings. Individual authors are solely responsible for the content and accuracy of their respective papers.
