

Post-2011 Summer Sale of CDs!

Here's an opportunity to catch up with recent Björling CD releases, for yourself and your Jussi-deprived friends! Last year's centennial releases came fast and furious, and now we have taken another look at the stocks in our "Jussi-store" and can offer you some very special prices.

And for your friends who "love Björling" but have missed the recent new releases with their great sound quality, here is a promise: We'll include a copy of at least one rave review of each new CD set with your order, for you and your friends.

1. Bluebell's 3-CD "Jussi at Gröna Lund" with the complete set of Jussi's recorded concerts at that Stockholm summer park from 1950 to 1960, with 6 pages of detailed notes by Kristian Krogholm. Now available at this very special price: $20 for one copy, and $15 for additional sets!
We'll include copies of this enthusiastic review by Sweden's Göran Forsling, from MusicWeb:

2. "Jussi Björling Live," the 4-CD set of most of Jussi's known American concert broadcasts from 1937-1956, completed with rare material from Sweden 1952-1960. The superb sound that transfer engineer Seth Winner has been able to extract from our new sources for this WHRA release has elicited rave reviews: we'll send you two of those from MusicWeb. Special sale price $25 per copy.
3. Jussi's 1947 Met broadcast of Il Trovatore in WHRA's excellent transcription by Ward Marston. Also starring Roman, Harshaw, and Warren, only $15 each!
4. Jussi's 1957 Royal Stockholm Opera performance of Il Trovatore in Caprice's 2-CD edition, complete except for Fernando's opening scene; together with highlights from the 1959 Stockholm broadcast of Manon Lescaut. Only a few left, available for $40. (Note: There are six recordings of Jussi's Manrico, all marvelous!)
5. Two special Bluebell single CDs, while they last: "Swedish Radio Concerts" and "J.B. in Song and Ballad." Price: $20 each.
