

September 2019

Podcast Spotlight: Noella Moshi and Misan Rewane on Wave

Mark Sherman
markbenjaminsherman@gmail.com

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/marriottstudentreview>

 Part of the Accounting Commons, Business Administration, Management, and Operations Commons, Business and Corporate Communications Commons, and the Entrepreneurial and Small Business Operations Commons

Marriott Student Review is a student journal created and published as a project for the Writing for Business Communications course at Brigham Young University (BYU). The views expressed in Marriott Student Review are not necessarily endorsed by BYU or The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Recommended Citation

Sherman, Mark (2019) "Podcast Spotlight: Noella Moshi and Misan Rewane on Wave," Marriott Student Review. Vol. 3 : Iss. 2 , Article 13.

Available at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/marriottstudentreview/vol3/iss2/13>

This Recurring Feature is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marriott Student Review by an authorized editor of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact scholarsarchive@byu.edu, ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.

NOELLA & MISAN ON SOCIAL INNOVATIONS

BY MARK SHERMAN

Society often defines success as how much money is in your bank account, rather than how many healthy relationships you have with others. Noella Moshi and Misan Rewane were born in Nigeria with a determination to redefine society's definition of success. In 2017, Noella and Misan founded a non-profit organization known as WAVE (West Africa Vocational Education). WAVE's mission is to help West Africa's youth to become self-reliant. Noella and Misan founded WAVE with the belief that "it's very difficult to change the world, but it's much easier to change somebody's world."

By focusing on relationships and interactions with individuals, the youth of West Africa are finding the confidence to grow in the business world. Noella and Misan believe that you cannot "fix" the individual, but you can see their potential and can serve them as they change themselves.

Noella and Misan teach that disconnecting from constant distractions enhance inner peace and personal confidence.. Noella and Misan encourage morning devotionals to be the best time of day to think calmly in order to connect with oneself for a meaningful day and life.

Misan Rewane

Noella Moshi

Listen to Notella and Misan's full story on Measuring Success Right to learn more about their ideas for social innovation and about the importance of connecting with others and yourself! Measuring Success Right is available online at measuringsuccessright.com and on Spotify, SoundCloud, Google Play, and Apple Podcast. 🎧