Commercial Dance Activism

Keely Song Glenn
_Brigham Young University_, song2keely@gmail.com

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/researchnetworking

Recommended Citation

https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/researchnetworking/196

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the BYU Research Development Office at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in BYU Research Development Office Research Networking Conference by an authorized administrator of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.
Keely Song Glenn (Dance)
Song2keely@gmail.com
(801) 422-3283
What am I advocating?

• Current: Clean Air
  • https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4d1CJ599B4&feature=youtu.be

• Upcoming: Reduce/Reuse/Recycle with an emphasis on clean water

• Passion For: Post-Partum Recovery Exercises and Accessibility (This is a Dancer Problem)
Supply List (but not limited to):

- Musicians/Composers
- Video/Film aspect
- Science/Information/Research to pull movement that is accurate
- Actors, Broadcast journalists
- Illustrators, Animators
- Research that is important for safety, health, or longevity of the body or the earth that needs a marketing nudge.
Research in Motion

• If you want to see your research in motion or curious to know what a collaboration might be like with a dance lens. In the great words of Tammi Terrell,

• “Just Call my name, I’ll be there in a hurry, You don’t have to worry.”