Joseph Smith and the Doctrinal Restoration

“Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it” (D&C 135:3). This year’s Sperry Symposium volume focuses on truths restored through the Prophet Joseph Smith. It celebrates his 200th birthday and the 175th anniversary of the Church’s founding.

Sperry Symposium Classics: The Old Testament

Edited by Paul Y. Hoskisson

Explore the Old Testament as the original testament of the Savior’s dealings with humanity. Topics include the law of Moses, the Abrahamic covenant, and the teachings of Isaiah and Elijah. Elder Russell M. Nelson, Robert L. Millet, and others offer scriptural insights in these classic Sperry Symposium addresses.

$25.95, ISBN 1-59038-533-0

Pioneers in the Pacific: Memory, History, and Cultural Identity among the Latter-day Saints
 Edited by Grant Underwood

In this volume, President Gordon B. Hinckley tells inspiring stories of missionaries and members in Australia, Hawaii, New Zealand, Samoa, Tahiti, and Tonga. Elder Glen L. Rudd recalls serving with Matthew Cowley, the “Apostle of the Polynesians,” a man loved for his faith and kindness. Chieko N. Okazaki discusses the need for harmony between gospel principles and human culture. Groundbreaking chapters tell the history of Saints in the islands.

$19.95, ISBN 0-8425-2616-1

Fire on Ice: The Story of Icelandic Latter-day Saints at Home and Abroad
 Fred E. Woods

How did the message of the restored gospel come to Iceland, the land of fire and ice? What made its converts so adventurous to make this lengthy Utah journey by sail, rail, and trail? What challenges did they encounter trying to assimilate into a western American culture? This book provides the answers. Its publication marks a dual sesquicentennial commemoration: the arrival of the first Icelandic Latter-day Saints in Utah and the earliest settlement of Icelanders in the United States.

$15.95, ISBN 0-8425-2617-X

A Descriptive Bibliography of the Mormon Church, Vol. 2
 Peter Crawley

On July 21, 1847, Orson Pratt and Erastus Snow, with one horse between them, paused at the mouth of Emigration Canyon and then made their way into the Great Salt Lake Valley—the first Latter-day Saints to walk on the land that would become their home. This volume tells the story of Latter-day Saint publishing efforts as the Church settled Utah. It also features detailed descriptions of Orson Pratt’s missionary publications in England and the printed works of missionaries in France, Italy, Denmark, and the Pacific islands. Researchers, librarians, book collectors, and serious students of Mormonism will find this book a valuable reference guide to these early publications.

Window of Faith: Latter-day Saint Perspectives on World History

Edited by Roy A. Prete

Historians rarely discuss God's hand in history. This collection offers the vantage of faith in viewing the events of the modern world. The book features Elder Alexander B. Morrison's keynote address on God's role in history, along with timely articles that delve into the role of divine providence in world events. Topics include the voyage of Columbus to the Americas, the birth of freedom in the Western world, scientific and technical advances, and the rise of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

$49.95, ISBN 0-8425-2610-2

Latter-day Saint Nurses at War: A Story of Caring and Compassion

Compiled by Patricia Rushton, Lynn Clark Callister, and Maile K. Wilson

This remarkable book tells the story of Latter-day Saint nurses who have served in the military, covering the engagements from World War I through Operation Iraqi Freedom. Each conflict is introduced by a brief historical background, followed by individual accounts that capture the struggles and sacrifices of nurses who served so faithfully.

$29.95, ISBN 0-8425-2611-0

Salvation in Christ: Comparative Christian Views

Edited by Roger R. Keller and Robert L. Millet

What do Christians believe about spiritual rebirth, justification, sanctification, and the fate of people who did not hear the gospel in their lifetimes? Scholars from many Christian traditions converged on the campus of Brigham Young University to share their perspectives. This volume weaves together the different hues of doctrinal understanding into a tapestry unified by faith in Jesus Christ.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

Religious Studies Center

Established in 1975 by BYU Religious Education Dean Jeffrey R. Holland, the Religious Studies Center (RSC) is the research arm of Religious Education at Brigham Young University. Since its inception, it has provided funding for numerous projects, including conferences, books, and articles relating to Latter-day Saint culture, history, scripture, and doctrine. The RSC endeavors to use its resources to, first, facilitate excellence in teaching the gospel of Jesus Christ; second, encourage research and publication that contribute to the mission of the university and its sponsoring institution, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; and third, promote study and understanding of other cultures and religions.

Research and Publication

One of the primary aspects of the RSC's mission is to enhance understanding of revealed truths. The ultimate interpretation of doctrinal matters rests with the First Presidency and the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles; therefore, we seek to discover historical background, provide cultural and linguistic details, and explore new avenues of understanding into our faith, history, and way of life. Thus, research into scripture, Church history, and religious matters in general is an important part of what the full-time Religious Education faculty do. Because BYU is primarily a teaching institution, we recognize as our major thrust the classroom experience. We seek, however, to expand our classroom through the writing and publication of our research.

The RSC helps fund several meaningful projects each year and publishes books, articles, a newsletter, and the Religious Educator in helping to promote and disseminate Latter-day Saint research and thought. These publications enhance the libraries of Latter-day Saint readers and others who take an interest in the history or culture of the Latter-day Saints. The yearly application deadline for research funding is June 1. Please send inquiries to RSC at 370 JSB, BYU, Provo, UT 84602.

An Invitation to Join with Us

RSC research and publication projects are sustained by university funding and by financial donations from friends who want to encourage the kind of quality work the RSC does. We are thankful for the generosity of those who support our efforts to bring the best scholarship to light. If you would like to become a donor to the RSC to help its mission, please contact the RSC at 370 JSB, BYU, Provo, UT 84602.

The RSC restricts its publications to items that fit within the scholarly range of the curriculum and mission of Religious Education. It produces materials that are well written, rigorous, and original and that reflect the doctrine, the history, the teachings of the living prophets, and the standard works of the Restoration. It seeks works that meet academic needs or fill a niche in the area of faithful scholarship. It welcomes all materials that fit within these parameters.
