Since the policy under which BYU Studies is published may not be widely known, the following statement may be of interest to our readers.

EDITORIAL POLICY:

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY STUDIES

As heretofore, Brigham Young University Studies is to be a voice for the community of Latter-day Saint scholars. Contributions dealing with Latter-day Saint thought, history, theology, and related subjects will receive first priority. Contributors are invited to examine any issues about the "Mormon" world.

But remembering the early commitment of the Church to study all things, to learn about all things, to find the truth in all things, BYU Studies will welcome articles in any field of general interest that are written for the informed nonspecialist. Contributions already prepared for the specialized reader in the technical language of the field should be rewritten for the intelligent lay-reader. Creative contributions are also welcome: poetry, short fiction, and drama.

Except for unusual cases, contributions should not exceed 4,000 words (approximately 15 double-spaced, typewritten pages). Manuscripts should conform to the MLA Style Sheet, and footnotes should be placed on a separate page at the end of the article.

Each author will receive 20 off-prints and three copies of the number in which his contribution appears.

Subscriptions cost $5.00 for four issues. Single copies are $2.00. Send subscriptions to Publication Sales Department, 132 HRCB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84601.

Send manuscripts to Dr. Charles D. Tate, Jr., Editor, Brigham Young University Studies, A-283 JKB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84601.
