In Their Image

I was always told I was created in God's image It made me feel so special but as I got older, I touched my hands those were not my Father's hands I looked at my eyes those were not my Father's eyes I lifted my breasts that was not my Father's chest I placed my hand on my womb that was not my Father's womb my brothers all looked like Him but I did not how could I be created in the image of God if I looked nothing like Him?

It wasn't until later that I learned I wasn't created in His image at all, but Hers.
