until you have felt hands around your wrist and a back against the wall of other's opinions until you have skipped from streetlight to streetlight and slipped up with accidental smiles until you have felt the worst sense of flattery that could ever be thrust on a tiny waist do not try to look me in the eye firm on speakerphone scrawled like the final say on a letter as if you have any experience and tell me that I am wrong
lying dramatic fantasizing
over-exaggerating foolish insert whatever insensitive word you have from the dictionary of toxic perspectives here.
