PREFACE

This issue of the Bulletin contains several articles and other materials drawn from the annual AAS and CEAL meetings, held in Washington, D.C., in March 1984. The minutes of the CEAL plenary session and the reports of the subcommittee meetings are contained herein. Also included are two papers from the panel "Building East Asian Research Collections in America: Pioneers and Their Achievements" presented at the AAS meeting; the papers in the current Bulletin issue, written by Edwin G. Beal and Eugene W. Wu, will be followed in the next issue by the paper given by Hideo Kaneko. Finally, one of the papers presented at the meeting of the CEAL Subcommittee on Library Technologies, by Ichiko Morita, one highlighting Georgia archival materials on East Asia by Jonathan Goldstein and another on East Asian resources at Emory University by Richard H. F. Lindemann also appear in this issue.
