The Colonia Juárez Temple: A Prophet's Inspiration

This is the fascinating story of the Colonia Juárez Chihuahua México Temple, including the inspiration President Gordon B. Hinckley received, while visiting Colonia Juárez, to build smaller-sized temples throughout the world. This highly visual book highlights the process, the progress, and the sacrifice of the wonderful Saints of the colonies who helped build this beautiful temple.

Shedding Light on the New Testament: Acts through Revelation

This book examines such themes as the Atonement, grace, gifts of the Spirit, the condescension of God, and calling and election within the pages of the book of Acts through the Revelation of John. Using scriptures of the Restoration and teachings from the presiding authorities of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, it illuminates and clarifies these and other topics so that we might establish godly conduct.

To Save the Lost: An Easter Celebration

Easter is a good time to recall Jesus' mission to the least, the last, and the lost, for he said, "The Son of man is come to save that which was lost." Not surprisingly, we discover that he sent his disciples to the "lost sheep," and thus their mission of finding the lost is a natural extension of his mission. Some of Jesus' most memorable teaching moments have to do with finding the lost. This volume contains the papers delivered at the 2008 and 2009 Brigham Young University Easter Conferences, which celebrates the life and atoning mission of Jesus Christ. We are honored to include articles from Elder Merrill J. Bateman, emeritus member of the Seventy, and Bonnie D. Parkin, former general Relief Society president.

By Study and by Faith:

Selections from the Religious Educator

Launched in 2000 by former dean Robert L. Millet, the Religious Educator serves the needs and interests of those who study and teach the restored gospel of Jesus Christ. In celebration of its tenth year, the editors have selected some of the outstanding contributions. Among the authors are Elder D. Todd Christofferson, Elder Jay E. Jensen, Elder Neal A. Maxwell, Richard E. Bennett, Thomas A. Wayment, and several others. This volume is highlighted with a number of color images.

A Land of Promise and Prophecy:

A. Theodore Tuttle in South America

Though not a biography of Elder Tuttle, the book focuses on his activities in South America. Each mission in South America is discussed in relation to Elder Tuttle's efforts and some of the issues and concerns of the time. This history focuses on the personalities and programs of the mission presidents and their wives with particular emphasis on Elder Tuttle because the changes that occurred during the time he was there were the product of these men and women.

An Uncommon Common Pioneer: The Journals of James Henry Martineau, 1828-1918

James Henry Martineau's journals present the life of a Mormon convert, a pioneer, and an individual dedicating his life in the service of his family, his country, and his church. Martineau's contributions to the settlements of northern and southern Utah, southern Idaho, southeast Arizona, and the Mormon colonies in northern Mexico are monumental. He was a civil engineer whose survey work left a lasting impression. Although not a prominent religious leader, he was a patriarch and was often in contact with or serving with those in authority. This volume offers a reflection of this common, yet uncommon, Latter-day Saint pioneer.
