MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES

The 1986 Membership Meeting of the International Association of Orientalist Librarians will be held in conjunction with the 32nd International Congress for Asian and North African Studies, Hamburg, West Germany, August 25-30, 1986. The Organizing Committee of the International Congress has announced that seminars on Library and Information Science will form an essential part of the Hamburg program. The topics of the Library and Information Science seminars will include bibliography and reference works, printing history and publishing industry in Oriental countries, Oriental manuscripts, library automation and technology, and other technical problems. Librarians, scholars, and students in the field of Oriental Studies are cordially invited to contribute papers to these seminars.

For information concerning registration and seminar participation, please contact:
