A Land of Promise and Prophecy:
A. Theodore Tuttle in South America

Though not a biography of Elder Tuttle, the book focuses on his activities in South America. Each mission in South America is discussed in relation to Elder Tuttle's efforts and some of the issues and concerns of the time. This history focuses on the personalities and programs of the mission presidents and their wives with particular emphasis on Elder A. Theodore Tuttle because the changes that occurred during the time he was there were the product of these men and women.

By Study and by Faith:
Selections from the Religious Educator

Launched in 2000 by former dean Robert L. Millet, the Religious Educator serves the needs and interests of those who study and teach the restored gospel of Jesus Christ. In celebration of its tenth year, the editors have selected some of the outstanding contributions. Among the authors are Elder D. Todd Christofferson, Elder Jay E. Jensen, Elder Neal A. Maxwell, Richard E. Bennett, Thomas A. Wayment, and several others.

*An Uncommon Common Pioneer:
The Journals of James Henry Martineau,
1828–1918*

James Henry Martineau's journals are a rich historical resource. They present the life of a Mormon convert, a pioneer, and an individual dedicating his life in the service of his family, his country, and his church. More than the life of one man, these records reflect the everyday struggles of a people whose lives were in transition as they set the foundations of a new society. Martineau's contributions to the settlements of northern and southern Utah, southern Idaho, southeast Arizona, and the Mormon colonies in northern Mexico are monumental. He was a civil engineer whose survey work left a lasting impression. Although not a prominent religious leader, he was a patriarch and was often in contact with or serving with those in authority. This volume offers a reflection of this common, yet uncommon, Latter-day Saint pioneer.

*The Doctrine and Covenants:
Revelations in Context,
The 37th Annual Sidney B. Sperry Symposium*

This book will help readers gain a better understanding of the background and development of Joseph Smith's revelations. Written by scholars trained in a variety of fields, the articles will also help Latter-day Saints better appreciate the setting in which Joseph received revelations and the significant roles Joseph Smith's revelations have played, and continue to play, in the dispensation of the fulness of times.

Moral Foundations:

Standing Firm in a World of Shifting Values

“The Gospel: The Foundation for a Professional Career” symposium was held on Brigham Young University campus in March 2007. It was cosponsored by Religious Education and the Ira A. Fulton College of Engineering and Technology. The purpose of the symposium was to emphasize how important it is for graduates of BYU to live the highest standards of morality and integrity as they leave campus and assume residency and employment in the world community. It was an opportunity to make principles taught by the Latter-day Saint faith find practical application in the lives of graduates. This volume contains the presentations from this symposium.

“Behold the Lamb of God”: An Easter Celebration

Followers of Jesus Christ since the beginning have referred to their Savior as the Lamb of God. While down by the river Jordan, John the Baptist was baptizing those who desired to follow the Savior. When the Savior approached the Baptist, John declared, “Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (John 1:29). After John baptized Jesus, he bore record “that he had baptized the Lamb of God” (1 Nephi 10:10). The next day, when John and two of his disciples saw Jesus, the Baptist again proclaimed, “Behold the Lamb of God!” (John 1:36). This volume celebrates the life and sacrifice of the Lamb of God.
