Grants for Research in Japanese or Chinese Sources at Princeton

During the 1985-86 academic year, the Princeton University Program in East Asian Studies will make available a limited number of travel grants to assist scholars in utilizing the Japanese or Chinese resources at Princeton's Gest Oriental

Library and East Asian Collections. The grants, which will not exceed $250 each, are to support travel only. Brief proposals for the grants should indicate the reasons why the applicant wishes to use the Princeton collection. Submit proposals to D.E. Perushek, Gest Oriental Library and East Asian Collections, 317 Palmer Hall, Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey 08544.

Yale University

Dr. Frederick F. Chien, the Representative of the Coordination Council for North American Affairs in Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Chien visited Yale University on March 29, 1985. Dr. Chien, who received his Ph.D. from Yale in 1962, presented the Ssu k'u ch'üan shu 四庫全書 (Taipei reprint) to Yale, his alma mater, during the visit.
