THE CHILDREN'S BOOK REVIEW is published five times annually, once every two months from September through June, by the Department of Elementary Education, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Statements and opinions in The Children's Book Review are the responsibilities of the authors and reviewers and do not necessarily reflect views, constitute endorsement, nor set policy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or Brigham Young University.

The editors think this Review is unique in that our reviewers represent a variety of disciplines (which results in more specialist reviews), they are interested in what is good and lasting, they are concerned with moral issues and often discuss the consequences of ethical stances, and their reviews reflect practical work with children.

For reasons of economy, the covers for the year's issues are all printed at one time. To make our covers less ambiguous, but maintain the economy, the issue numbers will be printed on the front cover, inside a box which you may tick, if you desire, to identify the individual number.
