

With the "Light Brown Hair," an encore, showed that Mr. Bjoerling could do more in English of he chose.

With the splendid help of Frederick Schauwecker at the piano, it was a grand vocal recital, and even if Mr. Bjoerling's breath control did not seem capable of holding out some tones properly and made him cut in too many phrases, still there is greatness both in his voice and in his artistry.

VII. Membership Information

The following information on membership is included for those who may not have received previous letters.

Individual Contribution:

$35 per year. Includes the Newsletter, currently anticipated to be published 3-4 times per year.

Family Contribution:

$50 per year. Includes the Newsletter, and extends individual benefits to the entire household. This will likely include the option to register for any future Society-sponsored trips and meetings at a reduced family rate.

Founder Contribution:

$100 per year. Includes all of the above benefits plus an audio tape or other offering exclusive to the Society (more on this later).

Lifetime Contribution:

$1000. All of the above with no annual membership renewals required.

Andy Binns will act as treasurer for the next year. For those of you who have indicated a desire to contribute to the Society, Andy will be establishing an appropriate account. I will let you know when this has been done. (In the meantime, please don't send any money to Andy.)

VIII. Sponsor Information

Mickey Dove, 109 Melrose Road, Broad Brook, CT 06016; Telephone: 860-623-9320;
Email: mdove@erols.com

Andy Binns, 554 Sheridan Square, Apt. 2, Evanston, IL 60602

Tom Hines, PO Box 660725, Birmingham, AL 35266-0725; Telephone: 205-870-2923;
Email: Tom62836@aol.com

Dan Shea, 1007 Edgehill Drive, Madison, WI 53705; telephone 608-231-3117;
Email: shea@math.wisc.edu

IX. Up and Coming

In my next letter, I'll share more biographical information, bring you up to date on legal matters, etc.