Creationism: Five Theories

1

White. Every documented fact has started with a blinking black line in the top-left corner of a one-inch-margin box.

2

I believe I was born blinking. I believe I was born Siamese—I mean, my mother's brain and mine are inside of me.

3

Then earth came clean, rubbing Adam's dream from my ribs—she grew gills and fins—some backwards evolving beauty earth is.

4

She shrinks herself from eel to amoeba, waves her flagella, swims away. God rides on her back. Eden slithers. Black.

5

There are bird bones in the clouds. How they fly too. Ribs as wings. Words stream: how we come too.
