STAUFFACHER ALL-CLANS GATHERING 1995
HELD IN GREEN COUNTY, WISCONSIN

Despite the oppressively humid heat of August 11th-13th, well over 200 descendants of Swiss Stauffacher emigrants gathered together to honor their ancestors during the New Glarus Sesqui-centennial in Wisconsin.

They came from all over the USA, Canada and Switzerland to discover their roots, meet relatives of their particular clans, and especially join together in grand tribute to their forefathers with the unveiling of the Stauffacher tree, planted in 1991 in New Glarus, resplendent with its newly added tree guard and memorial plaque. Casper Stauffacher of Collinsville, Texas gave a stirring background speech, followed by the joining of hands and prayer led by George R. Stauffacher of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Fun, frivolity and song reigned supreme at the banquet held at the Idlehour Mansion in Monroe, the huge picnic at the Stauffacher Highway Dairy Farms in Darlington, and capped off with the grande parade and closing program in New Glarus.

Many thanks to all the committees and towns of New Glarus, Monroe and Darlington for an exciting and thrilling celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Swiss Emigration to America; the Stauffacher families salute you!
