ANNOUNCEMENT

STAUFFACHER FAMILIES GATHER
TO COMMEMORATE 150TH YEAR OF 1845 SWISS EMIGRATION TO WISCONSIN

Three days of celebration will take place August 11-12-13, 1995 in New Glarus, Wisconsin honoring the emigration and founding of this Swiss community in Green County, Wisconsin.

The New Glarus Sesquicentennial committee has planned a full week of activities capped with a huge parade, programs, dignitaries from Switzerland, and much, much more.

The Stauffacher clans from all over the U.S. and Switzerland will meet at the Idlehour Mansion in Monroe for their banquet Friday the 11th; re-dedicate the Stauffacher linden tree planted August 1991 in New Glarus, tour the town and area, then gather for a picnic at Stauffacher Dairy Farms in Darlington on Saturday, August 12th; attend the finale parade, festivities and programs in New Glarus Sunday, August 13th.

A large turnout of the Stauffacher clans is expected, culminating in the joyous reunion and meeting of family from Switzerland and all over the U.S.A.
