BYU's Creative Writing Journal

winter 2003

Volume 23 Issue 1

Inscape is published twice yearly as a cooperative effort of the BYU College of Humanities and the Department of English. The contents represent the opinions and beliefs of the authors and not necessarily those of the editors, the staff, the advisors, Brigham Young University, or its sponsoring institution, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Current students of BYU are invited to submit typed, double-spaced manuscripts to either the BYU English Department (3146 JKHB), or to Inscape, CRWH, Provo, UT 84602. Inscape, a term derived from the works of Gerard Manley Hopkins, can be defined as “the inward quality of objects and events as they are perceived by the joined observations and introspection of a poet, who in turn embodies them in unique poetic forms” (William Harmon and C. Hugh Holman, Handbook to Literature, Upper Saddle River, NJ: Prentice Hall, 2000). Any questions or comments may be directed to inscape@byu.edu.
