Upcoming Events

Religious Education Student Symposium

Sidney B. Sperry Symposium

Friday and Saturday, 28–29 October 2016

The 45th Annual Sidney B. Sperry Symposium will be held in the Joseph Smith (JSB) auditorium on BYU campus. The theme is “Foundations of the Restoration: Fulfillment of the Covenant Purposes.”

Presentations will cover the Savior’s restoration of foundational truths, doctrines, and covenants.

Friday, 17 February 2017

This event is held in the Wilkinson Student Center from 9:00 to noon. The annual student symposium provides a forum for students to research, write, and present papers about religious subjects from a faithful perspective. For more information, visit <http://rsc.byu.edu/studentsymposium>.

These events are free of charge, and registration is not required. Some event details are subject to change. For more details, please visit us online at rsc.byu.edu/conferences or contact Brent Nordgren at 801-422-3293.
