CORRECTIONS

CEAL Bulletin

The editor regrets that the following omission was made in Nelson Chou's article on library development in the Sui dynasty. In CEAL Bulletin no. 101 (December 1993) on page 179 in the last paragraph, the sentence next to last that begins: "When one stepped on the switch, . . ." should read in its entirety:

"When one stepped on the switch, the curtain would roll up, the door, the window, and the lids of book cabinets would open, and the winged angels would come down to welcome the Emperor. After the Emperor left the reading room, everything would automatically close, and the winged angels would return to their resting place above the door."
