

10-1-1994

Librarians

Tom Havens

Hisami Konishi Springer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/jeal>

BYU ScholarsArchive Citation

Havens, Tom and Springer, Hisami Konishi (1994) "Librarians," Journal of East Asian Libraries: Vol. 1994 : No. 104 , Article 6.
Available at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/jeal/vol1994/iss104/6>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the All Journals at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of East Asian Libraries by an authorized editor of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact scholarsarchive@byu.edu, ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.

LIBRARIANS

University of California at Berkeley East Asian Library

HIDEYUKI MORIMOTO, formerly Japanese Studies Librarian and Adjunct Assistant Professor at the University of Iowa, has joined the staff of the East Asian Library at the University of California at Berkeley as Japanese Catalog Librarian in the Technical Services Group of the Library. Mr. Morimoto holds bachelor's and master's degrees from International Christian University, Tokyo, and an MLIS from the University of Michigan, where he is a doctoral candidate in information and library studies. He has held professional positions with UNICEF at UN Headquarters in New York and with the Arizona State University Libraries. Currently, he chairs the Committee on East Asian Libraries Subcommittee on Library Technology.

(Tom Havens)

Researchers from University of Chicago and University of Hawaii Visit Japan

EIZABURO OKUIZUMI of the University of Chicago has been a visiting researcher at the Meisei University in Tokyo since 1984. He has been working on a project which involves the analysis of educational documents dealing with the crucial transitional period in Occupied Japan.

MASATO MATSUI of the University of Hawaii has been appointed Research Fellow of the Institute for the Study of Humanities and Social Sciences, Doshisha University, for a year beginning 1 April 1994. Dr. Matsui is analyzing multicultural elements of Ryukyuan society by conducting an in-depth study of primary source materials.

(Hisami Konishi Springer)