The Journey West: The Mormon Pioneer Journals of Horace K. Whitney with Insights from Helen Mar Kimball Whitney

Edited by Richard E. Bennett

How did a young newlywed couple experience the Mormon pioneer trek west? In The Journey West, award-winning author Richard E. Bennett has compiled the first combined husband-and-wife account of the pioneer trek. The six journals rank among the great Mormon exodus journals.

They were written by Horace K. Whitney, son of Newel K. and Elizabeth Whitney, with reminiscences and insights from Helen Mar Kimball Whitney, daughter of Heber C. and Vilate Kimball.

The Los Angeles Temple: A Beacon on a Hill

Richard O. Cowan

President David O. McKay was intimately involved with the planning and construction of this largest temple that the Church had ever built. Its operation reflects some of the challenges the Church faced in the changing cultural climate of Southern California. This volume is a comprehensive history of the Los Angeles Temple. The text is illustrated with more than a hundred photographs of the construction, groundbreaking, installation of the angel Moroni, and cornerstone ceremony—many which have not been previously published.

Martyrs in Mexico: A Mormon Story of Revolution and Redemption

F. LaMond Tullis

“What bravery! They died with their boots on!” remarked one of the Zapatista executioners about the surreal way Mormon leaders Rafael Monroy and Vicente Morales had stood to receive the fusillade of bullets that pierced their bodies. The terror of facing an execution squad notwithstanding, no cowering, begging, or hysterics marred their calm and stalwart resolution to not renounce their faith. The Zapatista commander had given them that option.

Commitment to the Covenant: Strengthening the Me, We, and Thee of Marriage

Debra Theobald McClendon and Richard J. McClendon

In recent decades, prophets have repeatedly emphasized how a strong marriage and family are the basis of a robust society; they have counseled and warned of the many modern obstacles that can erode a healthy family life. This book draws on inspiring personal stories, research from sociology and psychology, and doctrines of the gospel of Jesus Christ to present key principles that, when applied, will help a marriage thrive.

Opening Isaiah: A Harmony

Ann N. Madsen and Shon D. Hopkin

Opening Isaiah provides what has never before been provided to LDS readers. It brings all important versions of Isaiah—King James, Book of Mormon, Joseph Smith Translation, Dead Sea Scrolls, and the modern New Revised Standard Version—into comparison for readers to help them clearly see the similarities and differences in each one. Readers can thus study Isaiah's writings with a focus on the inspired texts themselves. In addition to beautiful maps that guide the reader through the geography of Isaiah's day, the editors have carefully provided guidance in footnotes to untangle difficult passages, point to important symbolism, and reveal historical context. This book may become the most important resource on Isaiah you will ever purchase.

Abinadi: He Came Among Them in Disguise

Edited by Shon D. Hopkin

Under the guidance of some of the best thinkers on the Book of Mormon, the Abinadi narrative springs to life as each chapter approaches Abinadi's story and words from a different perspective. Whether viewed through a sociopolitical, literary, theological, philosophical, or historical lens, new insights and a new appreciation for the richness of Abinadi's discourse will help readers reignite their passion for the beauty and depth of the Book of Mormon.

Canadian Mormons: History of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Canada

Edited by Roy A. Prete and Carma T. Prete

This book gives a panoramic view of the rise and progress of the Church in Canada. It has all the elements of a great saga, including that of early faithful missionaries preaching in eastern Canada without “purse or scrip” in the 1830s and 1840s and the exodus of early Canadian converts who joined with the main body of the Church in Ohio, Missouri, and Illinois, and then trekked across the Great Plains to Utah in the Rocky Mountains.

Editing Intern

Megan R. Judd's love for religious studies was born when she spent two years in the Jerusalem Center as a “faculty kid” with her dad, Frank F. Judd Jr. Megan loved religious studies so much that she continued to take BYU religion classes even after she had the required religion credits. Among her extra classes were Foundations of the Restoration, Writings of Isaiah, The Pearl of Great Price, and Survey of Christianity. In August 2017 Megan became an editorial intern at the Religious Studies Center. She often catches copyediting and proofreading errors that others miss, and she can easily get absorbed in the smallest details of manuscripts. Some of her favorite hobbies are playing the piano, writing short stories, sorting through her childhood junk, hanging out with her family, and eating sushi. RE

RELIGIOUS EDUCATOR

PERSPECTIVES ON THE RESTORED GOSPEL

Submission Guidelines

The Religious Educator serves the needs and interests of those who study and teach the restored gospel of Jesus Christ on a regular basis. The distinct focuses are on teaching the gospel; publishing studies on scripture, doctrine, and Church history; and sharing outstanding devotional essays. The beliefs of the respective authors do not necessarily reflect the views of the Religious Studies Center, Brigham Young University, or The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Complete author guidelines are provided at rsc.byu.edu/styleguide. All manuscripts should be submitted electronically to Joany\_Pinegar@byu.edu.

Manuscripts should be double-spaced, including quotations. Authors should follow style conventions of The Chicago Manual of Style, 17th edition, and the Style Guide for Publications of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 5th edition, available at the site listed above.

Manuscripts will be evaluated by the following questions:

1. Does the manuscript address a clear thesis? Does the argument proceed cautiously and logically? Is the writing clear? Is it engaging and interesting? If not, why?
2. To what degree is the author knowledgeable on the topic as a whole, as shown, for example, by content, phrasing, contextualizing, thorough use of the best sources, and bibliography? Does the author adequately acknowledge and deal with opposing views? If not, why?

3. Does the manuscript present significant new data or new perspectives? What is its main contribution? Will people want to read this ten years from now? Does it make a contribution without resorting to sensationalism or controversy?

4. Does the author follow the canons of responsible scholarship (uses sound and fair methodology; documents arguable facts)? If not, why?

5. Is the manuscript faith-promoting? Is the piece in harmony with the established doctrine of the Church?

If a manuscript is accepted, authors will be notified and asked to provide photocopies of all source materials cited, arranged in order, numbered to match the endnotes, and highlighted to show the quotations or paraphrases. Photocopies of source material must include title page and source page with the highlighted quotations.
