Goals and Objectives of the Danish American Heritage Society:

To promote an interest in Danish American contributions to American life.

To encourage research in the life and culture of Danish Americans.

To serve as an agency for the publication of studies of Danish American contributions to American life.

To provide a means of communication and education for individuals interested in the activities of Danish Americans.

To encourage the evaluation, preservation and display of the records pertaining to the life and culture of Danish Americans, lending support to the Danish Immigrant Archives, including the Danish Immigrant Archival Listing, and the Danish Immigrant Museum.

To support the related activities of other Danish American associations and organizations.

To encourage and assist with conferences, meetings and endeavors to stimulate interest in Danish culture, heritage and language.
