GREAT BASIN NATURALIST

Special Notice

Commencing with volume 35 (March 1975) The Great Basin Naturalist will be combined with the Brigham Young University Scientific Bulletin, Biological Series under the title of The Great Basin Naturalist. The format will be changed from the present 6x9 inch single column page to a 7x10 inch double column page. The journal will continue to be published quarterly, but the number of pages per volume will increase to approximately 500. Manuscripts up to 100 printed pages (about 200 manuscript pages) in length will be acceptable. Publication and reprint charges will be adjusted to the new format, but will not be significantly different from that indicated below. The subscription rate will be increased to $9.00 per year (outside the United States, $10.00).

Notice to Contributors

Original manuscripts in English pertaining to the Biological natural history of western North America and intended for publication in the Great Basin Naturalist should be directed to Brigham Young University, Stephen L. Wood, Editor, Great Basin Naturalist, Provo, Utah 84602.

MANUSCRIPTS: Two copies are required, typewritten, double-spaced throughout on one side of the paper, with margins of at least one inch on all sides. In general, the style should conform to recommendations published in the most recent edition of the Council of Biology Editors Style Manual, published by the American Institute of Biological Sciences. An abstract, about 3 percent as long as the text and written in accordance with Biological Abstracts guidelines, should precede the introductory paragraph of each article.

ILLUSTRATIONS AND TABLES: All illustrations should be made with a view of having them appear within the limits of the printed page. The illustrations that form a part of an article should accompany the manuscript. All illustrations and tables to appear in this journal are to be made under the supervision of the editor, and the cost of the cuts and labor required to set tables is to be borne by the Contributor.

REPRINTS: No reprints are furnished free of charge. A price list for reprints and an order form are sent with the proof.
