FROM THE PRESIDENT

June 13, 2002

Dear Members and Friends of CEAL:

Your newly-elected committee chairs have already begun putting their committees together and brainstorming about programs for the next three years. I am grateful to those of you who have shown a willingness to be involved in this formal way in CEAL. But whether or not you currently serve on a CEAL committee, please share your ideas with committee chairs and other members of the Executive Committee regarding programs or projects you would like to see CEAL undertake or that you would like to be a part of.

This issue of the Journal includes an article on the University of Toronto's experience with Pinyin conversion cleanup as well as a report on the cataloging workshops sponsored jointly by CEAL and the Library of Congress.

By the time this issue reaches you, many of our institutions will be on a summer schedule. Perhaps this means for you that things will be a little less hectic than usual or, on the contrary, perhaps you spend this "down time" working feverishly on projects you could otherwise not get done! Whatever your experience, I hope the summer proves productive for you as well as a time of renewal.

Bill McCloy, President
Council on East Asian Libraries (CEAL)
