Indices of the Comparative Civilizations Review, No. 1-83

A full history of the origins of the Comparative Civilizations Review may be found in Michael Palencia-Roth's (2006) "Bibliographical History and Indices of the Comparative Civilizations Review, 1-50." (Comparative Civilizations Review: Vol. 54: Pages 79 to 127.)

The current indices to CCR will exist as an article in the hardcopy publication, as an article in the online version of CCR, and online as a separate searchable document accessed from the CCR website.

The popularity of CCR papers will wax and wane with time, but as of September 14, 2020, these were the ten most-popular, based on the average number of full-text downloads per day since the paper was posted. The earliest is from 1985, the latest from 2020:

What is the Difference Between Culture and Civilization?: Two Hundred Fifty Years of Confusion

Thorsten Botz-Bornstein (2016)

E. V. Walter (1985)

Globalization vs. Americanization: Is the World Being Americanized by the Dominance of American Culture?

Yoichi Shimemura (2002)

Human Rights, Those Who Are Governed and the Legitimacy of Law Enforcement

Lynn Rhodes (2020)

Samuel P. Huntington. The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order

David Wilkinson (2001)

Ninian Smart, Dimensions of the Sacred: An Anatomy of the World's Beliefs.

Ashok Malhotra (1999)

St. Thomas Aquinas and the Third Hellenization Period
Demetri Kantarelis (2020)

Kevin Shillington. History of Africa
Laurence Grambow Wolf (2001)

We hope that the delicious diversity of the dominant downloads will incite and inspire some readers, writers, and book-reviewers to contribute to the continuing conversation!
