NEW APPOINTMENTS

University of Toronto East Asian Library

Lucy Gan recently joined the East Asian Library at the University of Toronto as the East Asian Information Services Librarian. Lucy obtained her Master's degree in Linguistics and Translation Studies at Chongqing University in China and completed her Master of Information Studies at the University of Toronto in 2006.

Before joining the East Asian Library, Lucy worked in both academic and public libraries managing user services and Chinese collections. In her new position she will have responsibilities for developing, providing and coordinating both user and information services. Ms. Gan can be reached at 416-9781025.
