INSCAPE is published twice a year as a cooperative effort of the BYU College of Humanities and the Department of English, with assistance from the BYU Honors Program. This project is also supported by a grant from the Utah Council and the National Endowment for the Arts, Washington, D.C. Articles published do not necessarily represent the attitudes of the editors, anyone associated with Brigham Young University, or its sponsoring institution, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Manuscripts written by students currently enrolled at BYU or while in attendance there are eligible for publication. They should be submitted to the English Department, 3146 JKHB, or mailed to INSCAPE, Box 262 JKHB, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84602. Subscriptions are $4.00 per year. Send name and address with check payable to INSCAPE at the above-listed address.

Inscapè is the inward quality of objects and events, as they are perceived by the joined observation and introspection of a poet, who in turn embodies them in unique poetic forms.
