Brigham Young University Studies is a quarterly journal dedicated to the correlation of revealed and discovered truth and to the conviction that the spiritual and intellectual are complementary avenues of knowledge. Contributions from all fields of learning are welcome. Articles should reflect a Latter-day Saint point of view while conforming to high scholarly standards and should be written for the informed nonspecialist. Quality fiction, poetry, drama, and personal essays are also welcome.

Contributions should not exceed five thousand words in length. Manuscripts must be typed, double-spaced, and should conform to the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. They should be submitted in duplicate, with stamped and self-addressed return envelope. Each author will receive complimentary offprints and complete copies of the issue in which his or her contribution appears. Send manuscripts to: Edward A. Geary, editor, Brigham Young University Studies, 1102 JKHB, BYU, Provo, Utah 84602.

Brigham Young University Studies is abstracted in Current contents: Behavioral, Social, and Management Sciences; indexed in Religion Index One: Periodicals (articles) and Index to Book Reviews in Religion; and listed in Historical Abstracts, Arts and Humanities Citation Index, American History and Life Annual Index, and MLA International Bibliography. Member, Conference of Editors of Learned Journals.

SUBSCRIBERS NOTICE
