Harvard-Yenching Library Travel Grant Program: The Harvard-Yenching Library is pleased to announce its travel grant program for the 1998-1999 academic year. The purpose of the grant is to assist scholars from outside the metropolitan Boston area in their use of the Harvard-Yenching Library's collections for research. There will be fourteen grants of $250 each (four each in Chinese and Korean studies, and six in Japanese studies) to be awarded on a merit basis to faculty members and to graduate students engaged in dissertation research. Priority consideration will be given to those at institutions where there are no or few library resources in the East Asian languages, and no major East Asian library collections are available nearby. Each grantee will also be provided the privilege of free photocopying of up to 100 sheets. Please note that the awards must be used before August 1, 1999.

Applications for the grant, including a letter, a brief description of the research topic, and an estimated budget, should be sent to:
