Sunday's Impression

(Columbus in chains on a caravel bound for Spain in 1500)

Cochineal skies deepen to dark purple just after sunset

Icarus quivers in molten clay and sand on Cuba's shores

The sea rolls mazarin
with a frost of emerald

A flash of place
beyond the sun's extinction

Crescent of sea, arc of space where west squires east and shapes share secrets of golden arms
burnished madonnas
mother-of-pearl
