Publication News

The Cheng Yu Tung East Asian Library at the University of Toronto is delighted to announce the publication of Asian Canadian Voices: Facets of Diversity. This book showcases the perspectives of 11 authors from diverse fields of research, sharing their inspiring stories, reflections, and insights on Asian Canadian heritage and experience. This publication honors the past and present contributions of Asian Canadians and invites reflection on the current climate of anti-Asian racism.

Highlights:

- Explores themes of diversity, diaspora, migration, identity, ethnic communities, and acculturation
- Reflects the authors' lived experiences and research in Canada and Asia
- Culmination of the Cheng Yu Tung East Asian Library lecture series, “Tides on Our Pacific Shore: Celebrating Asian Canadian Heritage” and “Asian Canadian Conference: Engaging Asian Canadians”

Contributors: King Wong, Adrienne S. Chan, Aminur Rahim, Denise Chong, Janet Lumb, Kuilan Liu, Irene Chu, Arlene Chan, Terry Watada, Josephine Pui-Hing Wong, and Maria Krisel Abulencia

Available: Access the e-book on the University of Toronto's research repository, TSpace: <https://tspace.library.utoronto.ca/handle/1807/126121> or contact Hana Kim, Director, Cheng Yu Tung East Asian Library, to obtain a copy for your library.
