Reviewer: Laurien Clay

Reading level: Primary

Rating: Excellent

Genre: Biography; informational;

Subject: Watson, Emma, 1990--Juvenile literature; Actors--Great Britain--Juvenile literature; Books--Reviews;

The young British actress, Emma Watson, was born in France, but lived and attended school in Oxford, England. While living in Oxford, she was discovered and asked to audition for the role of Hermione in the Harry Potter films. Even with her instant fame, she has not been deterred from her passion for an education at Brown University and other hobbies.

Sarah Tieck is a well known author of children's biography books. Like her biography of J.K. Rowling, Tieck's informative prose combines well with the photos and other facts strewn throughout the book. This book targets early readers and provides information in a simple way along with word definitions, an index, and a link to websites for further information. This book is yet another wonderful way to learn about Emma Watson at school or at home.
