Richard S. Robinson, Priest. of Panto, in 1837 testifies that a messenger or two came to them with a certain written note, signed by Isaac H. Haight, for John D. Lee, with instructions for Robinson to forward it to the Meadows. R. opened the note, and read it. Its purport:
 "Word has been sent to Yellowknife and Lee was to break the Indians off and satisfy them with beef if necessary but not to kill the captives." R. did not know whether the note was forwarded or not. Ask Shandon (Amos?) who still resides in Panto.
