Mount Meadows.

D W Tullis rode on Jack Hamble's pull up Mountain road to Meadows in 1857 (He has no horse in Meadows all then) near the in 1857 taking care of stock for Asaph. After leaving north built, Gail Knight and the other there to live (Tullis handled the first lumber for the house - 1857 probably). Remembers Benj.
Arthur and Elliot Wilson and Peares with men of or not from Cedar, telling of their concerns. This was before company arrived. You after the men company travel came along inquiring after food etc; show to south end of Meadows, away from settlers stock; company went into camp on Saturday in Meadows. On Sunday night Indians camped about 3 miles above White Pigeon, Potlone, led by Richard & Reuben and Benj. Knell. Indians never came near camp; the party of potlone of fork of Spray; from there Indians went across hill to Meadows (Emigrants pass through Ditch on Cedar fork road) afterwards Amos & Thornton and two others visited the emigrant in Meadows. Lee held council with about a dozen men near Hamble's house the day of massacre. After council John M. Hopper went out with their guns.
