

2017

Mr. Putter & Tabby: Dance the Dance

Kristie Hickley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/cbmr>

BYU ScholarsArchive Citation

Hickley, Kristie (2017) "Mr. Putter & Tabby: Dance the Dance," Children's Book and Media Review: Vol. 38 : Iss. 7 , Article 69.
Available at: <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/cbmr/vol38/iss7/69>

This Book Review is brought to you for free and open access by the All Journals at BYU ScholarsArchive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Children's Book and Media Review by an authorized editor of BYU ScholarsArchive. For more information, please contact scholarsarchive@byu.edu, ellen_amatangelo@byu.edu.

Book Review

Title: Mr. Putter & Tabby: Dance the Dance

Author: Cynthia Rylant

Illustrator: Arthur Howard

Publisher: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt

Publication Year: 2012

ISBN: 9780152064150

Number of Pages: 40

Interest Level: Primary

Rating: Outstanding

Review

Mr. Putter and his cat, Tabby, live right next door to Mrs. Teaberry and her dog, Zeke. They all have a lot in common and frequently spend time together doing their favorite activities. Mrs. Teaberry decides that they should try out ballroom dancing! Mr. Putter isn't so sure about it, but doesn't want to let Mrs. Teaberry down. They attend a very fancy dance to test out their dancing skills. Mr. Putter and Mrs. Teaberry work on the cha-cha while Zeke dances with the poodle on a woman's skirt and Tabby bats at the sparkles that are everywhere. They all have a ball!

Dance the Dance is another beginning chapter book among over twenty in the Mr. Putter & Tabby series. Arthur Howard's pencil and watercolor illustrations of the interactions between humans and their pets will keep you giggling through the whole book. You will find Tabby asleep in the hanging flower basket, Zeke wearing a tuxedo and a hat, and Mr. Putter trying out the cha-cha. The text is equally funny. There are just a few short chapters, making this a perfect book for beginning readers to read in one sitting!