Book Review

Tractor Mac Colors on the Farm

A short board book for toddlers to learn the primary colors by seeing things on a farm that are red, green, yellow, orange, pink, and brown. There are also objects pictured in the various colors that can help really early readers to learn the object names and not just their color. Join Farmer Mac for a colorful visit to the farm with a little one in tow.

Bright and colorful illustrations teach toddlers their colors with friendly animals, trucks, and objects that are common in farm life. Well, trucks with eyes aren't "common" but you understand. The artwork is very fun and cheerful and each left hand page has a solid background that is the color that is being discussed. Great book for the diaper bag.
